Taxpayer assistance available at library locations

The Department of Revenue (DOR) will provide taxpayer assistance at several public library branches during the upcoming individual income tax filing season. Department staff will be available to answer questions about state income tax returns and Homestead Credit claims. No appointment is necessary.

Taxpayer assistance is being offered through a partnership between DOR and local public libraries. Assistance is also available at www.revenue.wi.gov and by calling (608) 266-2772.
